When it all goes down, Orlando, Florida's Anberlin will change the world. February 1, 2005 marks the date of their highly anticipated second release on Tooth & Nail, Never Take Friendship Personal, produced by Aaron Sprinkle (Pedro the Lion, MxPx). If it's as "intelligent and energetic" as vocalist Stephen Christian promises or half as honest and sincere as what Christian along with guitarist Joseph Milligan, bassist Deon Rexroat, and drummer Nate Young confidently delivered on their 2003 Tooth & Nail debut, Blueprints For The Black Market, expect to dance all night and be left breathless after these guys tug at your heart strings, just don't take it personal because Anberlin have done it before.
